

Strengthening Europe's Financial Markets

Director, Regulatory Affairs, Brussels

Manager, Regulatory Affairs, Brussels

Competitive basic salary plus benefits package

AFME (The Association for Financial Markets in Europe) represents a wide range of leading participants in Europe's capital markets, who are committed to a stable, competitive and sustainable European financial system that supports economic growth and benefits society.

We are planning to expand our team in Brussels to build an effective and influential voice to communicate the industry's standpoint on key issues to regulators and policy makers. These new appointments are critical in supporting our overall strategy. We aim to provide industry insight and expertise to support the financial reform process and help ensure a clear understanding of how financial markets can meet the needs of the European economy in an increasingly competitive, globalised world.

Director (1 Post)

As a senior member of a small, highly focused team, the Director will lead engagement with a wide range of stakeholders in the European legislative and regulatory process, with a particular focus on the securities markets. Candidates will have:

- Significant experience within financial services or markets, a clear understanding of relevant policy issues and strong practical knowledge of European legislative and regulatory processes.
- A proven track record of working at a senior level within a relevant trade association or corporate organisation; or a major political or governmental institution.
- He or she will also have strong people/relationship management experience and skills and be comfortable in a multilingual working environment.

Manager (2 Posts)

Responsible for contributing to and implementing AFME's advocacy strategy for the financial regulatory reform agenda, these individuals will build relationships with key policymakers and regulators. Candidates will have:

- A strong understanding of a range of key issues in the areas of financial markets and/or prudential regulation.
- Strong communication and advocacy skills and demonstrable excellence in building and maintaining relationships with a wide network of opinion formers.

To apply please send a copy of your CV and cover letter to afme@taylorbennett.com. If you would like to talk to someone directly about the role please call Iona McDougall on +44 (0)2075804300. The closing date for applications is 14th October.
