

Diversity Virtual Conference

11 March 2021

14:00 / Opening remarks

14:05 / Keynote address
Driving Change

OVERVIEW

- / The importance of 'buy-in' from the top
- / What are the main change drivers?
- / Global implications of investing in an inclusive workplace
- / Expectations of the next generation
- /

SPEAKER

Richard Iferenta

Vice Chair and Partner, KPMG

14:30 / Panel discussion
Intersectionality in Banking

OVERVIEW

- / What is intersectionality? Why can it be difficult to talk about?
- / How do our identities, privileges and positions relate to intersectionality?
- / How can inequality manifest itself in the workplace and how can we benefit from recognising its occurrence?
- / How to implement and promote inclusive transformation within your organisation

MODERATOR

Tej Patel

Partner – UK Regulatory Practice Lead and Co Lead of UK Race & Equality Network, Capco

SPEAKER

Jo Mahadevan

Quality Engineering Chapter Lead, Lloyds Banking Group

Marie-Laure Humbert

Executive Director, Strategic Advisory Solutions, Goldman Sachs Asset Management

Movell Dash

Head of Inclusion EMEA and D&I Consultant, Unity Technologies and Modas Personal Development

15:15 / Networking roundtables

15:55 / Fireside chat
Turning Intention Into Action

OVERVIEW

- / Why intersectionality matters
- / Active vs. passive allyship
- / Business equality index and regulatory perspective on effective implementation
- / The power of vulnerability and empathy in leaders

MODERATOR

Sharon Lewis

Partner, Sector Group Leader for Finance, Insurance and Investment, Hogan Lovells

16:35 / Content summary
5 Key Takeaways

SPEAKER

Alex Storer

Executive Director, Diversity Pride

16:40 / Closing remarks

16:45 / Event concludes. Networking remains open