

afme / Membership Application

Finance for Europe

Instructions: Choose the appropriate membership category (i.e., full, FX division or associate) and tick the box in the section that most accurately describes your institution. Associate members should choose whether they prefer to participate in High Yield or Securitisation or both divisions. (If you choose both divisions, you are also entitled to be invited to working groups in other divisions, such as Corporate Finance and Equity Capital Markets) Complete the form and email it to Membership@afme.eu. We will contact you about your application to finalise your participation and subscription level.

Rules of Membership

A full copy of the AFME articles of association and rules will be sent upon approval of your application (or sooner if you specifically request). The making of this application shall constitute an agreement to abide by the AFME Rules upon approval of the application and, in particular, the rules applicable to membership applications set out below.

Relevant extracts from the AFME rules:

4. Subscriptions

4.1 The subscription year shall, unless otherwise determined by the Board, run from 1 November to 31 October.

4.4 An institution joining during the year will pay a pro-rata amount equivalent to the remaining part of the subscription year. Details of the annual subscription will be included on the membership application form.

5. Resignation & Removal From Membership, Right of Appeal

5.3 Subject to rule 5.4, each member firm is entitled to resign from AFME with the provision of 6 months' written notice.

5.4 [Superseded.]

5.5 Member firms are liable for their pro-rata share of any financial or other obligations entered into prior to the date of their resignation from AFME.

5.6 No subscriptions shall be refunded to any member who resigns or whose membership is terminated.

Your signature on this form indicates acknowledgment and acceptance of these AFME Rules
