AFME welcomes FCA's proposals to streamline transaction reporting obligations

21 November 2025

Commenting on the FCA's consultation on MiFID transaction reporting, published today, Giulia Pecce, Head of Secondary Capital Markets and Wholesale Investor Protection Policy at AFME, said:

"We welcome the FCA's efforts to adopt a more proportionate approach to transaction reporting. These measures will allow firms to focus resources on core activities, reduce costs, and improve operational efficiency, while maintaining the UK's status as a competitive and well-regulated financial market. We note the principles underpinning the FCA's long-term approach to transaction reporting and look forward to seeing how they will be applied and developed in future consultations."
